

Dream for Our Children - Aug 2025

快樂童年 署幸福
Happy childhoods uplift us all

Dear Supporters,

Summer holidays are the perfect time for children and families to reset, rejuvenate and play together. In this edition, we are delighted to share tips on how children can benefit from learning in nature as well as updates on our Summer Camp activities.

Last month, the HKSPC team connected with global experts at the PECERA Annual Conference where our Senior Art Instructor presented about the benefits of Aesthetic Early Childhood Education. This remarkable opportunity highlights HKSPC's commitment to being at the forefront of early childhood development and sharing our experience with a wider network of education professionals.

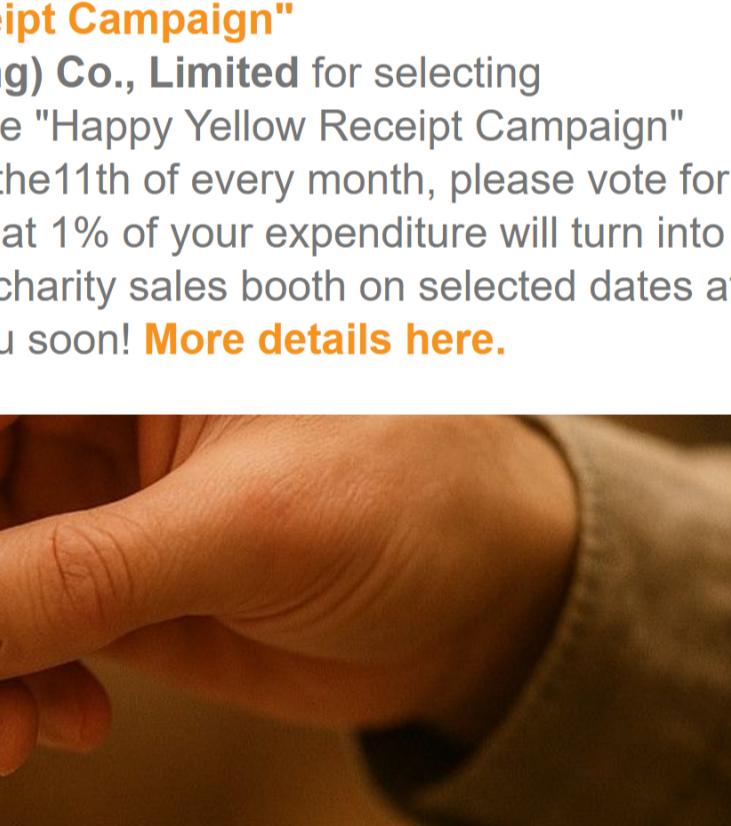

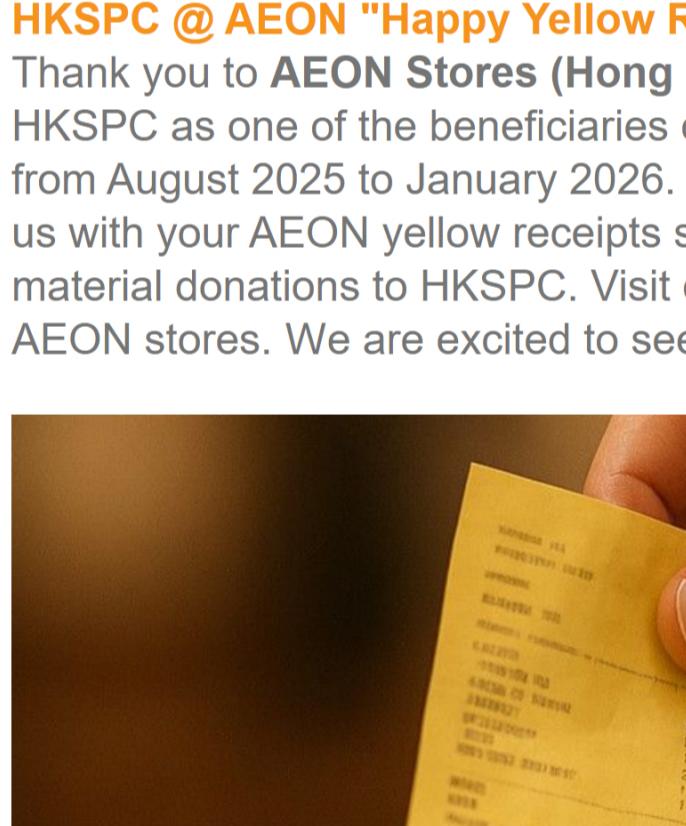

Last but not least, HKSPC is proud to be a beneficiary of the AEON "Happy Yellow Receipt Campaign" where shoppers vote for their favourite charities and AEON donates 1% of the respective receipt value. We invite you to support us at AEON stores on the 11th of each month until January 2026. Scroll down for more information about this generous initiative.

Event Highlights

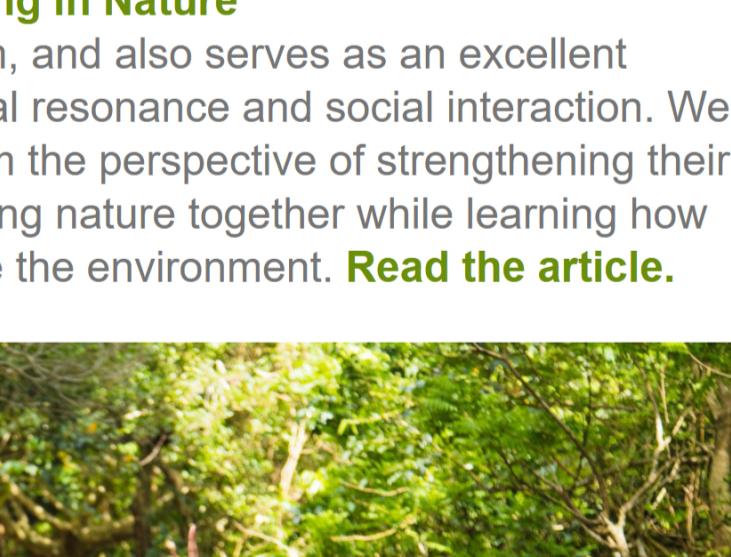

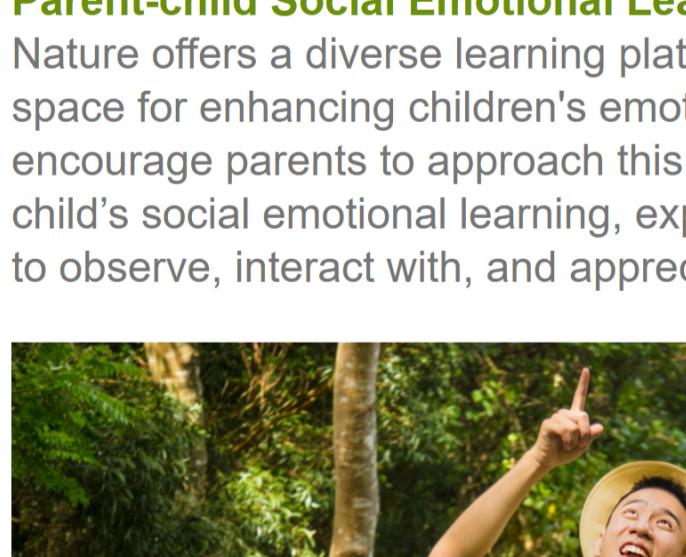

HKSPC at PECERA Annual Conference 2025

Ms. Flora Fok, Senior Art Educator of HKSPC, was honored to be invited to present her theses about Early Childhood Aesthetic Education at the PECERA Annual Conference 2025, held in Shanghai from 10 to 12 July. The Conference attracted over 100 global participants, all gathered to exchange inspiring ideas on early childhood education and child care. Read More.

HKSPC Summer Camp

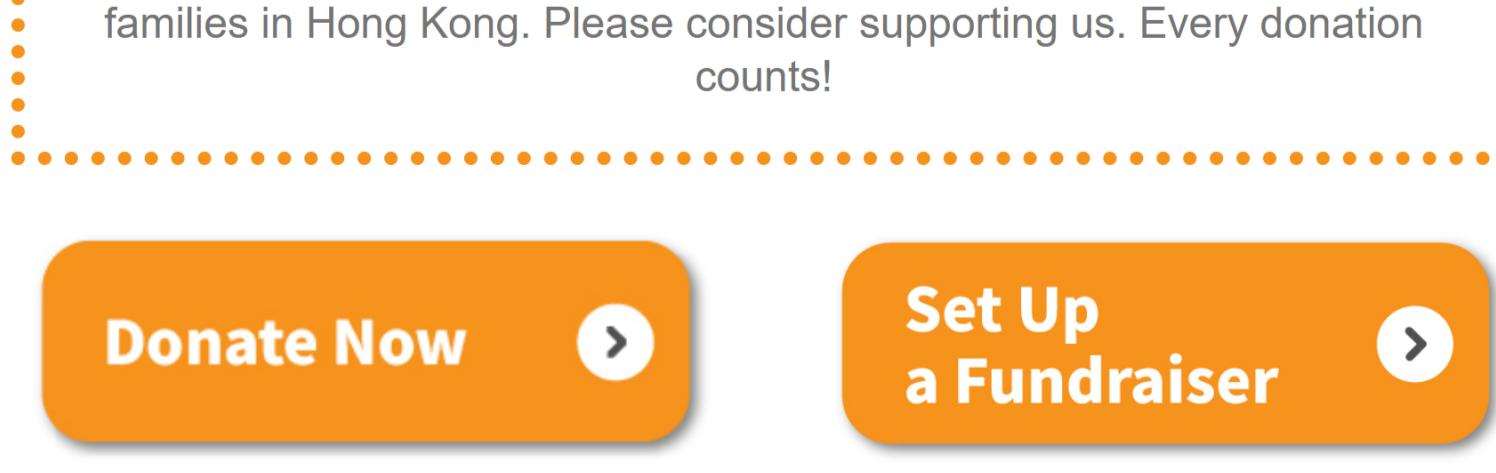

Children at our Children and Family Services Centre (Sham Mong District) have been enjoying a vibrant Summer Camp filled with arts and crafts, cooking classes, outings and more! A huge thank you to our partner LumiVoce for helping deliver the BioDiversity-themed camp in Week 1 which featured exciting outings to wetlands and coastal areas. Upcoming camp themes include Ocean Explorers, Furry Friends, Let's Move, Little Scientist and Art & Creativity.

Child Wellbeing Tip

Parent-child Social Emotional Learning in Nature

Nature offers a diverse learning platform, and also serves as an excellent space for enhancing children's emotional resonance and social interaction. We encourage parents to approach this from the perspective of strengthening their child's social emotional learning, exploring nature together while learning how to observe, interact with, and appreciate the environment.
